(b) The provisions of Part II shall only apply to the extent that such services are provided by the Company as agent for the Customer.
(c) The provisions of Part III shall only apply to the extent that such services are provided by the Company as principals.
1.2 Where a document is issued by or on behalf of the Company and bears the title of, or includes the words, "bill of lading", "sea waybill", or "air waybill" and provides that the Company contracts as carrier, the provisions set out in that document, if inconsistent with these Conditions, shall be paramount and prevail over these Conditions to the extent that such provisions are inconsistent but no further.
1.3 Any variation, cancellation or waiver of these Conditions (or any of them) must be in writing signed by a Director of the Company. No other person has, or will be given any authority whatsoever to agree to any variation, cancellation or waiver of these Conditions.

(b) where, prior to the commencement of the carriage of Goods, the Customer in writing demands from the Company particulars of the identity, services or charges of persons instructed by the Company to perform part or all of the carriage, and the Company fails to give the particulars demanded within 28 days. However, for the purposes of this clause, the Company shall only be deemed to be contracting as a principal in respect of that part of the carriage which the Company fails to give the particulars demanded; or

(b) the supplying by the Company of its own or leased equipment shall not in itself determine or be evidence that the Company is acting as an agent or a principal in respect of any carriage, handling or storage of Goods;
(c) the Company acting as agent where the Company procures a bill of lading, sea or air waybill or other document evidencing a contract of carriage between a person, other than the Company and the Customer and Owner;
